ACCUSED OF ROBBING A CHILD.

"That man has got my money," said a poorly dressed but bright looking little girl about ten cears of age, pointing to a man in West Fortysecond-st., near Eighth-ave., yesterday morning, as she ran toward a tall, pale woman. A crowd collected as the woman, Mrs. Gray, of No. 407 West Forty first-st., mother of the girl, seized the man by the arm and nded the restoration of her property.
protested that he did not have it. Patrolman Donolaue, of the Thirty-seventh Street ation, took the man in charge. Mrs. Gray stated that her busband had been ill for some time, and out of work; that, needing some medicine and food, she sent her little girl with a black suit to Lavery's pawn shop, her little girl with a black suit to Lavery's pawn shop, at Ninthave, and Forty-second-st., as she had no money. The girl got $4 on it, and of this she declares she was robbed by the prisoner. The latter gave his name as Roland J. Ely. of No. 859 Tenthave, and mason and extron. A woman who, the girl said, saw the act while sweeping in froat of a house in Ninthave, said that she had not been on the sidewalk. An liminan fruit seder at Forty-firstst said the little girl told nim that she had lost her money. The girl, however, insisted atrongly that ly was the man who robbed her, and he was seet to Jefferson Market Police Court and thence to the Tombs to await examination.

JAMES LYNCH DISCHARGED.

The examination in the case of James Lynch, who was arrested last week upon the charge of co his wife's death, was need by Justice Namer in the Third District Police Court in Brooklyn yesterday. Mrs. Lynch died in the absence of a physician after having tailon with a kerosene lamp in her hand. An autopsy was ordered by Coroner Doyle. Dr. Creamer, wao made it, gave the cause of death as ancurism of the cocline axis. irs. Margaret Lindgren, the sister of the dead woman, afterward accused Mrs. Lynch's husband of causing and he was arrested. A second autopsy was made. At the examination yesterday Dr E. A. Lewis, who made the examination, testified that EA Lewis, who made the examination testified that there was no ansurism of the cocline axis and it had not been touched at the previous examination. He could not ascertain the exact cause of death. Mrs. Lindgen testined in regard to her suspictons in the case. Justice Nacher desided that there was not enough evidence upon which to hold the prisoner, and he was discharged.

A QUARREL BETWEEN HUSBAND AND WIFE-POSSI-

BLY ATTEMPTED MURDER AND SUICIDE. A woman covered with blood and with a deep gash on the right side of her throat rushed from the yesterday morning, and begged the police officer on the beat to save her from her husband. Betore the officer could disengage himself from the frantic officer could disengage himself from the frantic woman the husband came running toward him with a piece of cloth in his hand, and said: "Here, fix her with this." He made a motion toward the woman, when the officer knocked him down and handcuffed him. The prisoner also had a deep out in his neck which he had probably inflicted with the intention of suicide. The officer took the couple back to their house and then summoned assistance. The woman's injuries were attended to at the Second Precinct Police Station, whither she was taken in an ambulance, and the husband, after his wound had been attended to, was locked up in a cell. The man was Henry Sadler, an Englishman, who has a rum shop in the house where he lives. The wife stated that he had frequently beaten her and had been arrested and imprisoned. His last incarceration was in July. He was released on August 5, and two days afterward he assaulted her again and she caused his arrest, but he was discharged on giving bail to keep the peace. She was in bed with her children yesterday morning, she said, when her husband attacked her with a shoemaker's knife and slashed at her neck. She struggled with him, and was cut in the back before she succeeded in escaping from him. Sadler declared that he had acted in self-defence, his wife being physically strong. He said that when he was released from jail in August he found a neighbor at his house attending to the children while his wife was absent at Rockaway, and she did not return until 9 o'clock at night. She became angry when she found that he had been released, and she would give no explanation of her absence. woman the husband came running toward him with give no explanation of her absence.

AN OLD ROBBERY RECALLED.

A robbery that occurred on Decoration Day was recalled on Thursday by the arrest and discharge of one of the supposed thieves, William Mercer, jr., who was arrested on complaint of Daniel Waldron, a member of the Big Four Combination. Mrs. Waldron was robbed of a diamond cross and $150 while she was in bed, and the prisoner was thought to be the man. To a TRIBUNE reporter Mrs. Waldron said that after the robbery she saw and pointed out to her husband the three thieves who had entered her room. She met them the first time in her bedroom about daylight while her husband was out of town, and again a second time when she was with her husband and rode with them in a Third ave. elevated train from Chathamsquare to One-hundred-and-sixth-st. Then the trio left the train followed by Mr. and Mrs. Waldron looking for a policeman, but the thieves escaped. The robbery occurred in the flat house at No. 407 East Seventy-eighth-st., the cross being torn from the night-robe that Mrs. Waldron was wearing, one of the men holding over her a cocked revolver. Although Iuspector Byrnes was informed of the burglary. Mrs. Waldron said that he showed little interest in the recovery of the property, and it has not yet been found. Mercer, she added, closely resembled one of the threves, but she was sure that he was not one of them. who was arrested on complaint of Daniel Waldren,

An adjourned meeting of the Board of Fire Under writers was held at noon yesterday. The attendance was large. The principal business was the discussion of the general question as to whether the Board should control the matter of rates at its own pleasanonal control the matter by the saledule whereby on and after November 1 "a deduction of ten cents shall be made from the schedule rate of buildings fully equipped with the automatic fire alarm." After an hour's lively debate, by a vote of 35 to 18, a resolution was adopted to the effect that in future "ai ruledand rates relating to schedule rated buildings be subject to alteration, amendment or repeal at the pleasure of the Board."

"Will you hold services on Sunday?"

"Not until Sunday evening. The people were not certain of my arrival in time, so they secured President Hitchcock for the morning. I have met some of my concergation, though, and I find some of them in affliction."

"How is your own health, doctor?"

"I am in good health. I enjoyed the trip very much, seeing old places through my daughter's young eyes. We saw the Matterhorn in Switzerland, and did some fine walking and climbing there. In England, where I passed some time, I met most of my old congregation, with whom I lived for sixteen years before coming to New-York in 1872. I preached to them the Sunday before I left, and I preached once among my relatives in Ayrshire—all old and familiar faces."

FINDING A HUSBAND ALREADY MARRIED. Mrs. Marie Hautstein complained to the Kings

County Commissioners of Charities and Correction, yesterday, that her husband, Philip Hautstein, had abandoned her after they had been married for a week. She is the daughter of Peter Halizbauer, of No. 229 Meserole-st., Brooklyn, and is nineteen years old. On August 26 she was married to Hautstein, who is a pawnbroker in Mercer-st. They spent their honeymoon at the Oriental Hotel, Coney Island. After a week they returned to this city and in the tooms over her husband's shop she found a woman who claimed to be Hautstein's wife and two children. Mrs. Hautstein went back to her father's honse, where her husband visited her and said that their marriage was a joke. He persuaded her to give up a gold watch that he had made her a present of and tried to regain her wedding ring. This she refused to give up, and her father appeared and drove the husband away. He then persuaded his daughter to make complaint against her husband. A warrant for his arrest was made out yesterday, and if he is found the charge of bigamy will be preferred against him. yesterday, that her husband, Philip Hautstein, had

ANSWERING MR. THURBER TO HIS FACE.

"I do not attribute all the ills which society is heir to to the effects of monopoly," said F. B. Thurber to the Blair Committee yesterday; "but I do claim that the great problem which the statesmen of our day have to solve is the equitable distribuhouse No. 200 Warren-st., Newark, about 3 o'clock tion of wealth, which, under existing conditions, is heaped up in the hands of the few, to the detriment alike of those who possess or control it and those who have nothing. Many minor causes have a bearing upon this effect: land monopoly, currency monopoly, transportation monopoly, currency monopoly, transportation monopoly, transportation monopoly, transportation monopoly, transportation monopoly, transportation monopoly, combination-in-trade monopoly, taxation, ignorance, immorality and intemperance, all have a greater or less bearing."

The witness then quoted from an anti-monopoly tract the statement that Congress is picked with corporation lawyers and other representatives of monopoly interests, and that measures in the interest of the people are retarded, smothered, or throttled, while those in the interest of corporations are consummated without the slightest difficulty.

"Mr. Thurber, I think there is no foundation for the statement which you have made," said Senator Call with considerable emphasis. "I do not wish to say that there is no Senator of the United States who is the retained attoiney of a corporation, but I will say that I know of no such Senator. I believe that the majority of Congressmen are honest, honorable men."

"As for myself," said Senator Pugh, "I am not alike of those who possess or control it and those that the majority of Congressmen are honest, honorable men."

"As for myself," said Senator Pugh, "I am not now, and never have been, connected with corporations."
"Perhaps, as confessions seem to be in order from the members of the Committee," remarked Senator Biair, "it would not be out of place for me to say that since the beginning of my public life I have not owned a dollar of stock in any corporation. I have refused passes on railroads and steamboats, and have declined retaining 'ees."

In the afternoon Professor John M. Gregory, formerly president of the Illinois State Industrial University, took the stand and spoke for several hours upon "Education as an Economic Force."

BUTLER READY FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION -THE PROHIBITION MOVEMENT. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Boston, Sept. 21.-Governor Butler is going to Springfield next Tuesday and will attend the State Convention, where he says he proposes to open the campaign in person. The Democrats rely strongly upon a big majority in Boston to carry the day, and it is unquestionably the purpose of the leaders to resort to every device and to commit frauds if needs be, to win in the November battle. The Mayor will not hesitate in his appointments of so-called Republicans as inspectors at the polls to put men there who are known to be in sympathy with Butler, and if it is possible Robinson will be counted out. Republican managers, however, will not fail to keep on the alert, and if possible attempts at fraudulent naturalization, registration and voting will be stopped. At the Democratic headquarters preparations are b made for the convention next week. As the leaders outline the programme, the convention will be a short one. The Governor's instructions will be implicitly carried out, a d an adjournment will follow.

The State Central Committee will go to Springfield from Boston on Tuesday forences, and in the after-zoon will hold a meeting and arree upon the combership of the several committees. may be some contesting delegations to the convention. but their cases will probably be easily disposed of by the Committee on Credentials. Samuel W. Bewerman will preside, and will probably be renominated for Lieutenant-Governor. At the State Committee rooms it is said that the whole of the old ticket will be placed in nomina-An intelligent observer of the Probibitory Convention says that that convention was a Butler affair. "The old man got a grip upon it and did not let go," he said. "The temporary ensirman began by denouncing Mr. Robinson as a rum candidate, and the convention showed its intolas a rum candidate, and the convention showed its intolerance at its close by expelling from the State Committee a well-known elergyman, who had dared to advocate the duty of adopting theorge D. Robinson as a candidate. Every mention of Butler's name was theered to the webo, while denunciations of the Repundican party and its candidate were received with hearty approval. I have heard it inneed that the needed deflected its employed by the response to the demand of the temperance sentiment, gave these Prohibitionists an opportunity to make their influence felt, but they missed it."

Soon after his election last year Governor Butler, in an address at North Easton before an audience representing nany manufacturing interests, said when he could see he ballot in the hands of every man, etc., he would the ballot in the hands of every man, etc., he would have time to attend to cattle shows, herse trots, dog tignis, etc. This fall the Governor has come to the conclusion that it is not wise to sneer at the farmers. To day he attended the cattle show at Bridge-water, and made an apology for his North Easton speece, saying that since it was made he had learned something about the duties of a Governor, one of wideh is to meet his fellow-chilzens at cattle shows. He snowed all through his speech a sensitiveness to the criticisms of the press.

Various rumors gained ground as to the cause of the attempted murder and successful suicide; but while there can be no doubt that an intimacy of some sort existed between the man and the woman, no evidence to that effect was brought out at the inquest held to-day, while out at abundant testimony was supplied showing that the young man had met with a financial misfortune which had rendered him despondent to the verge of insanity. It appears that early in the week his employers, Broderick & Bascom, sent him to New-Orleans to make a collection, furnishing him with money to defray the expenses of the trip. They wanted him to stop at several of the arger cities on the route to New-Orleans and see what he could do in the way of seiling goods. Since that time tney heard nothing of him, until this morning they heard of his suicide. After an absence of a few days, whalen returned to 81. Louis, and conceating himself from his parents and employers, sought refuge with Charne Howard, the head wanter at the Alhambra Theatre, and Carrie Howard, his wife, a very beautiful woman, who is one of the performers. The theatrieal employers say that Whalen was infatuated with the woman, but that they do not believe his affection was reciprocated. To the Howards and to several other of his friends around the theatre of which he was, unknown to his employers or parents, a regular habitue, he conlessed the fact that while on the train he had been swindled by monte men out of some $400 which had been entrusted to nim by its employers; and in his despondency he said frequently that if he could not raise the money by Thursday night ne would kill himself. time they heard nothing of him, until this morning they said frequently that if he could not raise the money by Thursday night he would kill himself. He falled to get the sum required, and on Thursday he drank deeply, which was contrary to his usual custom. In the evening he went to the theatre and made several inquiries for Mrs. Howard, and seemed deeply disappointed every time he learned of her absouce from the theatre. She returned to the place about 11, and was soon seen by Whalen, who called her over to him. As she drew near, she excused herself and turned off saying she would return soon. He said: "No you wen", and fired at her head. She stunbled and the shot passed over her, and Whalen, tainking he had wheel her, shot himself in the right temple, inflicting a wound from which he died in a lew minutes.

The Coronet's jury heard the testimony of a number of witnesses to-day and returned a pinh vertice of suicide, all the evioence going to prove that the unfortunate young man had killed himself in preference to facing his employers and rendering an account of his unjust suewardship, Just why he wanted to kill the woman as well as nimself was not brought out, and probably will never be made public, as the husband and wife who alone know all about it are redicent on the subject.

RAILEOAD INTERESTS.

MEETING OF WESTERN MANAGERS. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21 .- At the opening of the second meeting this morning of railroad managers Mr. Potter, general manager of the Burlington and Missouri River road, offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

It seems to this meeting that the several reads now concrued in the traffic between the Eastern States and the Pacific coast should be worked in harmony and upon onl rates. Tols resulted in the formation of a committee, omposed solely of the freight managers, with inmight be pooled and distributed among them in such a proportion as would be equitable to all. The confernce then adjourned to Monday next. Among outside railroaders the feeling gained ground that the North-Pacific Road will continue to maintain the independent position attributed to it, relying upon the good offices of the Union Pacific Road to sus-tain it in its demands. All the more that an be extracted from the Central Pacific Road, against which the fight is chiefly directed, so much the better for these two particular roads. Besides this the Northern Pacific representatives know that they have a better chance to make a go bargain now than they would have after a disastro

THE PASSENGER RATE WAR IN THE WEST. Cmcago, Sept. 21.-The cut in passenger rates between Chicago and Louisville, after remaining at $4 50 for two days, took a sharp turn downward this morning, and at noon tickets were selling at $6 with a rebate of $5 over the Pan Handle route and at $4, with a rebate of $3 route and at $4, with a rebate of $3 over the Louisville, New-Albany and Chicago road, making the actual rate to Louisville $1. The object of the rebate ticket is to prevent persons from taking advantage of the Louisville rate to go to Indianapolis and other points. The Louisville, New-Albany and Unicago Compuny is also selling a stratight $3 ticket to Louisville, good for three days, and a round-trip ticket good for thirty days for $9—the regular price one way. The planing-mill owned by Robert Ellis, at Nos. 410-416 East Forty-second-st., was burned yesterday morning. The fire was discovered about 8 o'clock, and it spread rapidly through the low frame buildings, beginning in the engine-room behind the boiler. The building contained a quantity of shavings and dry wood. The workmen by leaving their coals barely escaped. Large piles of lumber were on three sides of the mill, separated from it by a more wassage. The lumber was soon on fire, and for a long time baffled the efforts of the firemen. The greater part of it was owned by G. L. Schuyler & Co., the yard of this lumber firm occupying the remainder of the block between First-ave, and the river, with the exception of a row tenement-houses and the large cigar factory of Land-auer, Strauss & Co., in First-ave. At the time the fire broke out there were 200 employes in the eigar-factory, and they fled to the street, but upon discovering that their factory was not in dauger they returned to work. Eleven fire engines and the two fire boats had quickly responded to the third alarm, but the work of extinresponded to the third and the but he with guishing the flames was carried on for a long time with little success. The dry pine lumber in the part burned like tinder as the flames rushed is through the crevices of the high pines, often consuming the interior of a pile before the irremen knew that it was burning. Owing to the quantity of water thrown on the half a hundred lumber piles streams flowed through the yard and threatened to unfermine and carry off the property not destroyed by the life. ched to uniformine and carry stroyed by this life.

The firm of G. L. Schuyler & Co. estimated its loss at about $70,000, upon which there was an insurance of $62,350. The total value of the stock in the yard was said to be $200,000. The loss to Mr. Ellis on the planing-mill was about $15,000. There was an insurance policy on the building of $2,500, and on the muchinery of $5,500. The cause of the life was unknown.

LOSSES AT VARIOUS PLACES. Benson, Ariz., Sept, 21.—The fire of Wednesday night destroyed the entire block opposite the depot. The losses will reach $42,000; insurance, $28,000. Chicago, Sept. 21.—A special dispatch from Perdand, Dak., says: "Yesterday J. F. Cargil's elevator, containing 30,000 bushels of wheat, was desiroyed by fire. The loss in from $40,000 to $50,000; insurance, $20,000." CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 21.-A fire to-night in Holt

Brothers' carriage stock manufactory destroyed the building and its contents. Less, $12,900; insured. DOVER, N. B., Sept. 21.-A beit of woods near Great Falls is on fire. The property-owners and other citizens

NET AND RACQUET IN PROSPECT PARK

The third day of the lawn tennis tournament in Prospect Park was favored by the weather. The general interest seems rather to increase than diminish as the games proceed. About twice as many spectators were present as on the preceding day, amounting to were present as on the preceding day, amounting to about 1,000 persons. The games were played on the lower part of the common, and the south hill of the picule grounds formed a natural amphitheatre on which the spectators sat overlooking the players. Mesers. Drake and Denny played a lively match against Grant and Hough, in which they were beaten, but not without a hard fight. The Change beat Grant and Lundborg's Perfumes-Edenia and Marechai Neil Ross.

Hough-6.0,6.4. The most interesting match and the Coffey Brothers against the Chancy Brothers. The match was fought from beginning to end with the reatest determination on both sides. Edward Coffey has a severe high service difficult to return. The rallie in this game were long and interesting, being sometimes returned fifteen and sixteen times the ace was won. Vollies, cuts, drives and recoveries followed quick on each other, eliciting loud applause. The Coffeys won the first seteliciting loud applause. The Coffeys won the first set. 6.1. The Chancys then played up, winning the second set 6.3. From this point their opponents played a spiendid game, winning two more sets 6.4, 6.4. The only single match played was between C. Notman and Bulkly, which was won by the former, 6.2, 4.6, 6.3. The committee cannot be congratulated on its management of the order of matches. There has been considerable jumble between the second and third rounds, some of the latter being played before the former. So far as the doubles are concerned, the Coffey brothers win the prize. In the singles Mr. Graut to-day will play Notman for the second prize. If he wins, Mr. Larkin wins the cup for singles, but if Notman beats Grant, then he will have to play a final with Larkin. The ground was in good order, excellent courts having been specially laid out by Mr. Callahan, the park official.

BASEBALL NEWS.

The New-York and Chicago League nines played a game of baseball at the Polo Grounds yesterday in the presence of about 2,000 people. The New-York nine outplayed their opponents at every point and won an easy victory. The Chicago nine have apparently given up all hope of winning the championship. The home nine had a wonderful streak of good luck in batting, knocking the pitching of Goldsmith all over the field. The Chicago men would not have scored a run but for a dropped fly by Ewing and two passed balls by Dor-gan. The score is as follows:

"SAM" PINE STILL AT BRIDGEPORT.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept. 21.-The negro Sam " Pine, altas Smith, was taken before Chief Judge Park and a jury this afternoon in the Superior Court and charged with burglary and horse-stealing. He was remanded to jail to await trial. He still refuses to talk auch on any subject connected with the offences with which he is charged. Sheriff Crosby told THE TRIBUNE'S correspondent to-day that he had know the prisoner for years, and he gave an account of his early years which showed him to be a hardened offender before he was out showed him to be a hardened offender before he was out of his teens. There seems to be in some quarters a doubt as to his identity with Pine. This is due to the opinion of the Detective Payne mentioned in yesterday's TRIBUNS, who wishes to identify the prison with a negro for whose apprehension he holds a warrant on account of a murier committed in Babvion, L. I., four years ago. The general opinion is, however, that the negro in Bridgeport jail is none other than "Sam" Pine and Miss Stocum's assatlant.

GOOD WILL OF THE DEALERS.

To the Editor of The Tribune. SIR: The fairness and liberality of THE TRIBUNE to the newsdealers are in such marked contrast TRIBUNE to the newsceaters are in such marked contrast to the treatment they get from some other of the city papers, notably The Herald, Times and World, that I think it deserves a word of recognition. As one of the larger newscealers I beg to say I certainly propose to push the sale of THE TRIBUNE to the utmost of my push the sale of The Tribune to the utalist ability; and I find that my view is fully sustained by that of the trade generally. Yours respectfully, R. Thompson.

New York, S. W. cor. Bleecker and Carm 21, 1883. WILL HELP TO SEND IT AHEAD.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: In regard to the late change in the price of THE TRIBUNE, the cut-rates are making things red-hot, and there is no teiling when and where it is going to end. However, you can rest assured that you will have the earnest support of the dealers in pushing THE TRIBUNE. One reason is that you allow the dealers a living rate of 1 cent profit. If there is anything that a dealer can assist you with in connection with your paper, I, at any rate, shall do all I can to send it absed. Yours respectfully
